THE CHAIRPERSON OF IPFC 2022

Welcome to the fifth biennial UCSI University International Piano Festival and Competition 2022 (UCSI IPFC). As a leading music institution in Malaysia, the Institute of Music (IMus) at UCSI University is proud to present this exciting and enriching event to pianists of different ages. As the unsettling COVID-19 situation continues to impose considerable safety restrictions on live performances, a lot of competitions have turned to online platforms. However, after careful reflection, we believe that the artistic integrity of live performances is absolutely indispensable and cannot be easily substituted in any other platforms. We, therefore, are delighted to announce that the IPFC 2022 will be a live event, albeit naturally, taking the COVID-19 development and health concerns into consideration as we plan the event accordingly. Since 2014, IPFC has set the stage for talented pianists to showcase their skills as well as to expand their network by engaging with pianists and judges from Malaysia and beyond. In addition to receiving constructive feedback from our honourable judges, we also do our best to provide contestants with good performance and/or further study opportunities with our IPFCs.

Apart from creating a platform for young musicians to showcase their talent, we, as Malaysia's top music school, earnestly see the need to cultivate the art of piano playing in Malaysia. In order to aspire to a higher level of performance, we have set our standard to be on par with some of the international competitions overseas. Furthermore, this competition also serves to educate teachers and parents about the nature and the processes involved in preparing their students and children respectively, for an international piano competition.

Besides that, in an effort to promote new music in Malaysia, we have been collaborating with the Malaysian Composers Collective (MCC) to showcase the works of Malaysian composers since IPFC 2020. This year, we have continued the tradition with two commissioned works by Malaysian composers, Ms. Jessica Cho Kah Poh and Dr. Chan Wei Tuck, the duo that have won the Free Hand Festival co-organized by MCC and IMus this year.

IPFC 2022 involves the efforts of many individuals. We are fortunate to have generous support from our sponsors, extending our sincere gratitude, especially to David Ng, the Managing Director of Graceful Piano for his unwavering support from day one; Bobby Chen, Founder of the Overseas Masters Winter Piano Academy (OMWPA) (UK), Bentley Music and Claris Music Sdn. Bhd. We are also grateful to Mrs. Tan Yean Chin for her generosity in sponsoring the Best Etude Award cash prize.

The event would not have been possible without the participation of all 89 contestants and honourable judges from near and afar, who took time off their busy schedules to commit to this competition. In addition, I wish to express my gratitude to my committee for contributing their time and efforts to make this a successful event: Mr. Lim Tao and Dr. Cadis Lee Ying Jie who handled all the applications with patience and finesse; Mr. Terrence Ling for his impeccable skill in managing all the social media posts and video recordings and Ms. Dorothy Kay who exercised great competence in taking care of all the logistical matters.

To all teachers and parents, thank you for your support and investment for the future of your students and children. On behalf of UCSI University, Institute of Music and as chair of the IPFC2022 committee, I wish you the best of luck and look forward to seeing you all again in 2024!

Assistant Professor Dr Christine Tan, DMA

LENA CHING

Lena Ching is a well-established pianist and teacher in Singapore, who has taught, developed, and mentored numerous students and young performers from her private studio, LASALLE College of the Arts, and Nanyang Academy of Fine Arts (NAFA). An alumna of the Royal College of Music in London where she majored in both Piano and Harpsichord, she counts herself as one of the privileged beneficiaries of her teachers Yonty Solomon, Phyllis Sellick and Ruth Dyson in the RCM, as well as Victor Doggett during her formative years in Singapore.

Having been a prize-winning student herself, her students have also won numerous prizes at local and overseas competitions, while many have become highly successful and illustrious professional musicians with a deep passion for music. Amid a flourishing career, Lena's interest in musical development led her to pursue the Master of Arts in 'Psychology for Musicians' from the University of Sheffield (UK).

Lena's professional experiences included numerous opportunities to perform as a soloist, concerto soloist, chamber musician, and as an accompanist. She has frequently been invited to adjudicate music competitions (locally and overseas), teach in masterclasses and workshops, as well as to conduct talks and seminars on music education, particularly in the field of developing musical talent and abilities in students, as well as performing arts well-being.

Lena served as Head of Keyboard Studies in NAFA's School of Music from 2015, and then as Vice Dean since 2020. She continues to be greatly inspired by aspiring young musicians from all parts of the world, as she passionately engages in teaching and mentoring students of various age groups, with a special interest in the development of natural abilities as well as the professional careers of those in the industry.
